

Steven M. DeGroff, CPA, CFE, CGFM
Senior Auditor - United States Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Inspector General

Steve is a Senior Auditor with the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Inspector General (HHS-OIG) in the Albany, New York Field Office. Steve graduated with a BBA in Accounting from Siena College in 2000 and joined HHS-OIG in 2001. A large part of Steve's time is devoted to forensic accounting where he works directly with the U.S. Attorney's Office. Steve's work has led to numerous civil recoveries and criminal convictions. Steve is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), and Certified Government Financial Manager (CGFM); and is a member of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners and Association of Government Accountants. Steve has also been a firefighter for over 25 years and served as Chief of his local fire department for two years. He is now serving as a Deputy Fire Coordinator for Albany County and is a Fire Instructor for the New York State Office of Fire Prevention and Control. In his spare time, he enjoys golfing, hiking, and skiing. Steve lives in Loudonville, New York with his wife Carrie, and their two children Michael and Emilie.

Session Title: Latest Updates from the Office of Inspector General

Brief outline of session:

The session objective is to provide your group a background on HHS-OIG as well as an overview of healthcare fraud and detail on our current work products that relate to healthcare and medical billing.

Summary/Outline:

- HHS-OIG Background
- HealthCare Fraud 101
- Investigation Highlight - NYC Cardiology Fraud Ring
- Recent OIG Work
- New OIG Work Plan Items